COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

A schedule of inventory form has been prepared, approved by the Assessors, and a supply printed so that a copy will be mailed to each taxpayer about March 20th. Each person receiving the form is requested to fill in the answers as it applies to her or her ownership of real estate and personal property. The completed form should be returned to the Town Office by April 2nd, either by mail or in person. Neglect or refusal to fill out the form will bar appeal to the Assessors to review the assessment, as well as appeal from the Assessors' decision to the County Commissioners.

Warmer weather will result in the posting of several highways against heavy trucking. The following town ways are usually posted: Flat Road, Grover Hill Road, Northwest Bethel Road, and Chandler Hill Road. Proper notices will be posted at each end of the road as soon as conditions become such that heavy trucking will cause damage.

A form letter will be mailed very shortly to all delinquent tax payers informing them as to when tax liens will be filed and legal action taken on unpaid personal property and poll taxes. When it becomes necessary to institute legal action on a delinquent tax the taxpayer then becomes burdened with extra costs of collection. Early payment will prevent this from occurring.

Sincerely,
Harold L. Bean

O'DONNELL - SAUNDERS

At a ten o'clock ceremony Saturday morning in Our Lady of Wisdom Chapel at the University of Maine, Orono, Miss Susan Jane Saunders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Addison C. Saunders, became the bride of Michael Joseph O'Donnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. O'Donnell of Longmeadow, Mass., in a double ring ceremony with Father Roche officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and her maid of honor was Sandra Farrar of Hingham, Mass.

John J. O'Donnell, father of the groom, was his best man and Elaine Penley of West Paris, a classmate of the bride, was organist.

The bride wore a blue suit with white accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of spring flowers.

A wedding breakfast at the Oronoka followed the ceremony, with Norman Lambert at the organ. John J. O'Donnell rendered an old favorite family song "Two Loves Have I." Mrs. Charles A. Farrar, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake with Eileen Saunders, sister of bride, Lisa and Michele Farrar and Patty Saunders assisting.

The young couple will continue their studies at the University and reside at 8A Beech Street, Orono, Maine.

Mgr. Bean Accepts Wilton Position

Town Manager Harold Bean resigned his position here Monday evening at a special meeting of the board of selectmen. He will remain here until becoming manager of the town of Wilton on April 14 at an increased salary.

Mr. Bean has been Bethel's efficient and popular manager since April 29, 1957, when he came here to succeed O. T.

Rozelle. Mr. Rozelle had served three years as the town's first manager and left to work with the State Assessor's department. He is now town manager at Milo.

Mr. Bean came to Bethel from Clinton where he was manager eight years, and previously had been selectman, tax collector and acting postmaster in the adjoining town of Canaan.

Local Senior Citizens Group Proposed

All who are interested and would like to help establish a social get-together club for the senior citizens of Bethel are invited to attend a meeting in Garland Chapel at the West Parish Church on Wednesday evening, March 21 at 7:30. Dr. John Chantiny, Family Life specialist and instructor at the University of Maine, will be the speaker.

Throughout the United States, where ten per cent of the total population has reached the age of 65 or over, there are numerous groups who are finding their older friends worthwhile. Portland has such a club, as has Hallowell with some forty members, and another in Hancock County draws enthusiastic support. In Bethel there are more than 230 people 65 or older, out of our total of 2300 plus.

A committee formed of members from the Catholic Church, the Church of the Open Bible, the Congregational, Nazarene, and Methodist Churches, have united to make place for such an adult group in town. Dr. Chantiny's talk in Garland Chapel will explain the state's concern about the senior citizens of Maine.

INDUSTRIAL MANAGEMENT CLUB MEETING

The Western Maine Industrial Management Club held a dinner meeting Tuesday at the Universalist Church in South Paris.

John A. Geary, Assistant Superintendent of Engineering for the Employers' Liability Assurance Corp., Inc., Boston, was the guest speaker. The title of his talk was "The Art of Job Instruction." Mr. Geary pointed out several problems frequently encountered by supervisors attempting to teach workers various elements of their jobs and offered solutions to these problems. A supervisors guide for "On the Job" instruction was distributed to the audience and a demonstration on how to instruct, following the guide was presented by Mr. Geary.

Lester Bickford, chairman of the monthly meeting committee, introduced the speaker. H. W. Detert led the audience in group singing after dinner.

Samuel Timberlake, club president, announced that there would be an executive meeting at the A. C. Lawrence plant in South Paris on Monday, March

Mrs. Violet Swain, Corres.

The 35th annual Pineland Winter Carnival Ball was held at the Andover town hall on Saturday evening with a capacity crowd. At 8:00 p. m. the coronation was held.

The stage was banked with evergreen trees and in the center was a large white dome representing the Radome at the Satellite Station.

Four youngsters John Merrill, Ashley Roberts, Jeffrey Hodson and Elmer Cole, led the procession. They were followed by the Junior members of the Pineland Ski Club, dressed in ski togs, Ruth Bodwell, Jeannie Merrill, Vickie Simmons, Paula Poor, Peggy Mills, Kati Feener, Brenda Hodson, Bruce Simmons, Phillip Mills, Kerry Meisner, William Mysh-rall, Rodney Swain, Kenny Merrill, Roger Mills III, David Hutchins, Brandon Falkenham, and Tim Michaud. Four teenage Ski Club members, Becky Learned, Donna Meisner, Alyson Hodson and Julie Akers, dressed in ski clothes marched in and went onto the stage to await the royal procession.

Four young ladies from the Sophomore Class at AHS dressed in floor length white bouffant dresses, with long white gloves, with red sashes saying "35th Pineland Ski," and small crowns, marched in and took their places in the center of the floor. The very gracious ladies were Marsha Meisner, Betsy Hutchins, Jeannette Simmons and Janice Harrigan.

1961 Queen Gail Learned, dressed in a bouffant lavender dress, also with a Pineland sash, and wearing the lovely crown marched in and took her place on the stage. Her corsage was yellow roses.

Princess Ann Morton, dressed in medium green shade gown, wearing the sash and crown and lovely corsage, took her place on the stage.

Queen Norma White, dressed in a lovely pale shade of green, wearing the sash, corsage, royal robe, and carrying a red and silver baton with the word "35th Pineland" marched very slowly down the center of the hall followed by two very tiny little train bearers, little Miss Pamela Sidelinger and tiny Miss Donna French.

After taking her place in the royal chair the four lovely ladies in white joined the group on the stage.

Warren Percival, president of the Pineland Ski Club spoke a few words and then introduced Thomas Palmatier, Jr., who is an official at the Satellite Station and living in Andover, who spoke briefly before placing the crown on the lovely 1962 queen. Mr. Percival announced who had won the events of the day.

The group marched out, led by the new queen. Later a Grand March formed which ended the coronation ceremony.

Many thanks were extended to Mrs. George Meisner and Mrs. Keith Hodson, co-chairmen of the queen committee and their helpers. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Sidelinger for decorating the hall.

The Junior Pineland Ski Club members held a carnival on Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning with 24 youngsters competing. Leon Dunn, Andover, and Cy Broomhall, Rumford, had charge of the events.

Class I Ski Meister was Bruce Simmons, Class II, Rodney Swain, and Class III, Arthur Cole.

4-H Bread Demonstration Leaders

An artful job of croasting and exhibiting a "cram jam" coffee cake resulted in two Maine 4-H'ers taking top state honors as 1961 team bread demonstrators.

Jane Allen, 17, and Beverly Cotton, 15, both of Harrington, each received a $50 U.S. savings bond from Standard Brands Incorporated, according to the Cooperative Extension Service.

Miss Cotton, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cotton, has been a 4-H'er for seven years. She has completed many projects and has shown talent for foods and their preparation.

Miss Allen, daughter of the Leslie Allens, is another only child who has benefited immeasurably from 4-H membership. She has shown a consistent preference for cooking and food preservation, although she has excelled in other activities as well. She has been active as a junior leader and was a president of her club.

The 1961 state winner in individual bread demonstration was Wanda Morrill, 16, of Freeport, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurice Morrill. She has completed many projects in her six years of 4-H work and she won a trip to Washington, D. C., with a vegetable demonstration. She also received a $50 bond from Standard Brands. Nut bread was her specialty.

TODAY'S Meditation

THE WORLD'S MOST WIDELY USED DEVOTIONAL GUIDE

Thursday, March 15

Read Psalm 116:1-9 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. (Isaiah 55:7.)

Anxious that a photograph of her be good, a woman tried to impress the photographer with that idea. "You needn't worry, he said. 'My picture will do you justice.' The woman answered, 'But I don't want justice. I want mercy.'"

We all need mercy: for, as Paul says, "All have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." Simple justice is a phrase we used, and in many cases it is good. But justice for the sinner would mean condemnation and punishment.

Even without Paul's assertion, our hearts tell us we have sinned. We are guilty of doing what we should not have done. What may be even worse, we are guilty of leaving undone what we should have done. The law calls for justice, but Christianity stresses mercy for all who forsake their evil ways and thoughts and return unto God with a sincere plea for forgiveness.

PRAYER: We confess our sins, O God, and turn to Thee for pardon. Have mercy upon us. Give us power this day to resist temptations to do evil. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Thought For The Day "God be merciful to me a sinner."

COUNTRY FLAVOR

OLD APPLE TREE

No one knew how long the old Garden Royal had been growing in the yard behind the house. It was a huge gnarled tree with bulging, shaggy limbs. The blue-tinged bark on the massive trunk had known the climbing feet of three generations. Over the years, boys had watched bluebird families that lived in hollow limbs.
